

PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This is a fantastic opportunity to acquire a superior, individually designed, detached dormer bungalow, which set on an unusually large plot and includes a sizeable area of garden to one side of the dwelling, on which Planning Permission was previously granted in 2012 for the erection of another bungalow, with a detached single garage. Although this has now lapsed, it is more than likely that a new application for planning would be granted.

Situated in a particularly desirable position in the highly sought after village of Kelbrook, with wonderful rural views from the front, this exceptional dwelling provides deceptively spacious accommodation, which has been considerably extended and would suit a wide range of prospective buyers, including the larger family unit. This extraordinary abode boasts numerous noteworthy and advantageous attributes and early viewing is very strongly recommended.
